

SOCIAL SCENE

SPONSORED BY STAR MOTORS

Girls Night Out

Girls Night Out took place Friday, May 26 at Algonquin College. The evening of live auctions, raffles, dinner and dancing raised over $77,000 for Hospice Care Ottawa, a community-based charitable organization that offers end-of-life care in the Ottawa area.

PHOTOS BY ASHLEY FRASER

Lisa Sullivan, the executive director of Hospice Care Ottawa with event supporter Mary Ann Smythe.

Shirley Greenberg (middle) poses with girlfriends Patti Blute (left) and Patricia Peters (right) at the photo booth set up Friday night.

From left, Adriana Olivera, Loreto Lamb and Camile Dagenais Percival.

Jane Brownrigg was up on her feet dancing and following the instructions being belted out from the stage.

From left, Elizabeth Nesbitt and her sister Dianne Gillette.

From left, Sharon Lalonde, Sharon McGarry and Hospice Care Ottawa board member Sheila Brady.

From left, Ottawa firefighter Ben Derry, Kristin Delhunty, Ottawa firefighter Ron Phillips and Sarah Logan take a moment for a photo.

Would you like photographs from your event featured on an upcoming Social Scene page? For consideration, please email socialscene@postmedia.com